TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 2nd, 1862

Congress—Deputies,

The Chamber met yesterday. The petition of 1,163 residents in Rosario, begging the recognition of the Paraná National Debt, was reported by the Secretary but not read, the President passing it to the Committee of Finance. The dispatches of two Deputies for the Cordoba, being presented, the Chamber retired to examine them, after which the President resumed his seat, and the members elected Dn. Luis Velez, and Dn. Benigno Zavalia were recommended by the Committee, for admission.

Dr. J. C. Oblegado required that all the acts of their election should be read. In connection with some deputment he mistake had enclosed the lists Cretes for Deputies and for electoral colleges of the Presidency, in one envelope; this was not considered sufficiently unexamined to make void the elections. Dr. Oblegado became very excited in reference to some charge of calumny thrown out by a Cordobese Deputy in that Legislature. He retorted the accusation and was called to order by Sr. Osuna and Ruiz Moreno.

The Cordobese Deputies, being sworn, took their seats.

The Postal tariff was then read and passed in general reading.

Art. 18. Every letter under 4 grams shall pay 2 cents (5 $ m/c) for home or foreign postage—passed unanimously.

Art. 2nd. Registered letters shall pay an additional fee of 25 cents (5 $ m/c)—passed unanimously.

Art. 3rd. All newspapers, printed sheets, music paper, &c. shall pay 5 cents per lb

Sr. Velez [of Cordoba] ably supported an exception in favor of newspapers.

He said.—Our printers are unduly in want of intellectual light; the Press is the great medium of civilization, and far from putting fetters, we should rather necessarize its progress.

Sr. Castello proposed to suppress the whole Art. as being calculated to prevent the free circulation of improved ideas and information.

Sr. Marmol condemned the taxation of newspapers. To charge imported news, spurs would be unjust, seeing that the English and French Governments keep up a postal service, to convey them while they cost nothing to the Argentine Republic. Let all the foreign provincial circulation, Government should offer a prize. After an able speech from our literary friend, who complimented Dr. Hutchinson & Rosario on his cotton-growing efforts, the vote was put, and Art. 3 passed.

Ayes 17—Noes 14.

The amendment clause, excepting newspapers, borne or foreign was carried by an overwhelming majority.

Art. 4. The delivery of a letter to private houses shall cost 2 cents.

Art. 5. Posting though the interior shall cost 10 cents each.

These Art. were passed without opposition.

Questions of the day.

The government message, is a new phase of the Capital question, and of our Representation. Heroin General Mitre has taken the position that he will not accept the Presidency until Buenos Aires be declared metropolitan and head of the National authority. He gives many reasons for this opposition but one alone is sufficient to justify his refusal—Federalism either will be established for the whole province. It might give its party advantages as to the seem more decided, if government consent of its Nation as irrevocable by any of the Provinces, being so fixed. She will bring and representation the express wishes of the Nation as irrevocable by any of the 14th, which will be 19 days inferior triumph, more especially after when some of the Buenos Aires deputies helped to swell the majority. It is an oversight that Gen. Mitre has not nominated the Mole, we counted over 2a deputies—Numbers of an important post one of which had unexpectedly nominated by M. Billinghurst! This is a positive Porte prophecy!

tono directly in contradiction to popular opinion. It is a sign of weakness that the Ministry pretend to be equally satisfied with two measures so very different in their effects—yet it is moreover, a strong proof of the liberty of our legislative council, and the weight given to Buenos Ayres in the Capital, this question will be probably even more tedious in the local Chambers than it has been in Congress. If we judge of their proceedings by the Chamber's rashness in choosing a President to our acceptance of the Republic, and hasten their decision, which, by the way, is an unpress formulary, seeing that to date not of course three yrs. The ballot of the hereto-fore "Federalist" seems already gained, as the Governors, Senators, of Sunday last are Capitalists, notwithstanding all the efforts of the opposition who saw in Nat. Autonomy reputation the loss of the Federalization.

The Cordoba railway has been passed into law, and the Minister of Finance secures its start at whatever commerce requires. The Gas Company is ended, Mr. Wheelwright father of the concession, and Mr. Lumb the Inspector of Police, whose reputation has been so splendid, and the sheep wash.

Glee Club Soiree.

Among the various musical institutions of our locality no one is in the ascendant, as is the known as the Glee Club. Being intended for the encouragement of native talent, and to which its members belong, it is a debut in public. Parties were also drawn in numbers, and Mr. Mars's [illegible] Hall was filled to overflowing. The programme was as follows, selections from Verdi, Rossini, Bellini, Donizetti, Auber, Meyerbeer, Mozart, Haydn, Balfe, Lavenu, Rooke and the Lucca Arrangements of Scotch Songs were also rendered in the passage.

The season of San Pedro Railway Manager Lamb had been captured with the graces of the season on San Lorenzo. The rational had been chased, three beasts and his horse required to be killed that he escaped and in consequence of his wounds with a knife, received from the Administrator of the Estancia, which he gave.

Mr. Rice Patton took possession of the property chain of Lujan.

The Government of Catamarca and Rioja is the scene of the most terrible disorders and the extermination or retaining of the insurrectionists.

The commercial news are heavy. Tobacco and Sugar goods are for sale. Tobacco is very low for the poorer sorts, and the Government has prohibited the importation of Tobacco which were very scarcely wanted.

3rd. The Custom House officers shall not be allowed to keep the peons in their service for more than 15 days, and they shall be changed by the Estancias in the same proportion as they were given.

4th. The Collector-Gen. is hereby authorized to regulate the fulfillment of this decree in the manner most convenient to the interests of commerce and of the state according to the public service.

5th. This decree shall be enforced on the 1st September proximo.

6th. Let it be communicated to the respective parties and given to the Nat. and Register.

Sir—

Please say what is the best way to punish a meddling neighbour?

I have just arranged with certain parties to shear my sheep, at the coming season. This unfortunately, neighbour goes, behind my back, and tempts these men to carry operatives with five dollars extra, per hundred.

Such an action is despicable in any one, but much more so in one's own countryman and next door neighbour. I have considered the best plan to checkmate such a conduct is to address the public through your columns, to the public. I won't mention names, but the man the cap fits, let him wear it.

Editor's table.

The circulars are out, and we learn that in every parish the anti-capitalist party was beaten by a majority of the election. The greatest excitement prevailed; high words passed; and at the Colegio, the table was smashed. A police into the street, and some of the opposition are received a few slight contusions. In the Merced, the excitement was so great that the Juez de la Paz stretch up an opposition to the ballot, and even threatened to have the election annulled. The Capitalists were successful in procuring the services of Dr. Irigoyen to act under, to exercise the energies first and last of all at the gates, to drive at the cries of "Viva Mitre!" the monster, he would [illegible] and [illegible] the ground with their votes.

Elections.

Les elections ont eu lieu, et nous apprenons que dans chaque paroisse le parti "anti capitaliste" a été battu. Dans plusieurs l'écart a été très grand; au Collége des mots ont été échangés, la table brisée et jetée au milieu de la salle, et quelques uns de l'opposition ont reçu des paires de soufflets. Quelques autres ont été plus heureux, et ont été portés en triomphe par leurs amis. Le parti "anti capitaliste" a été battu.
